

The Mennonite Centre Heritage Club presents...

In His Own Words: How Paul Penner Came to Canada

Just months before Paul Penner passed away in 2013, he was interviewed by a university student about his life in Chortitza, Russia, and his event-filled departure from that Mennonite town in 1941, with a sojourn in Poland and Germany before his arrival in Canada in 1948. We will listen to the audio recording of his story and hear some excerpts from his memoir .

Paul, a buyer for Sears at its head office in Toronto, is best remembered at St. Clair O'Connor as the volunteer manager of the Ten Thousand Villages store for many years.
