

UPDATE on TUMC ON-LINE BIBLE STUDY!

1. Why an on-line bible study?

- We as TUMC want to take the Bible seriously, but our urban context presents a challenge – we haven't figured out how to study the Bible together outside of Sunday morning. How do we study the Bible together as a community?
- This on-line weekday evening study doesn't require you to leave your home. It's after children are in bed. You can even be in your pajamas if you wish!

2. Details:

- Six sessions, Tuesday evenings, 9:00 pm, starting this coming week, January 29.
- Bible study guide: Unsettling the Word. Hardcover copies available this Sunday. ($25 or pay what you can.)
- Led by Peter H., a contributor to the book and author of its study guide.
- An initiative of Christian Ed and Mission & Service committees.

3. Sign up

- To register, please email Tobi T. Each Tuesday you will receive an email invitation to join the Zoom meeting. Click on the link at the start time. That's it.

Unsettling the Word: Biblical Experiments in Decolonization, edited by Steve Heinrichs, Director of Indigenous-Settler Relations for Mennonite Church Canada. Steve says: "For generations, the Bible has been employed by settler colonial societies as a weapon to dispossess Indigenous and racialized peoples of their lands, cultures, and spiritualities.... Is it possible for the exploited and their allies to reclaim the Bible from the dominant powers? Read through new lenses, the biblical texts come alive in fresh and surprising ways."
